

Candidate response: Willa Powell

I make a difference on the city school board

I welcome this opportunity to state my qualifications for re-election to the Rochester city school board.

I bring a financial education, technical professional experience, and a 21-year Army Reserve Officer career, to the school board. Objective observers know that I make a positive difference on the board.

Compassion — With four children enrolled in, or graduated from, Rochester School District schools, I am exceptionally qualified to understand parents' needs and their desire for a quality education for their children. I know how to incorporate human needs into the bureaucratic institution that is the school district.

Competence — Now is the time for disciplined fact-finding, not on-the-job training. I have taken full advantage of my 12 years' experience on the board to truly understand the details of New York state education regulations and financing.

Moral courage — Friendly audience or hostile, the truth is the truth, and I speak the truth. Remaining quiet about inconvenient facts or difficult realities won't solve problems. Speaking up brings daylight to the issues the district faces.
